4 Governor Brown Visits Alliance Schools in Lincoln Heights

Wed May 14, 2014 10:06 pm (PDT) . Posted by: asncaalert

When Alliance for College-Ready Public Schools began, our mission was to prove that a network of public schools serving low-income students could be consistently excellent. We sought to be innovators who could share our successes with educators across the state and nation. After ten years, we continue to work towards that goal.

Last week, Governor Jerry Brown, State Board of Education Member Trish Williams, and Executive Director of the State Board of Education Karen Staph-Walter visited Alliance Susan and Eric Smidt Technology High School and Alliance College-Ready Middle Academy 5 to learn about our blended learning initiative, known as BLAST.

Also joining us were Alliance Board Member Ambassador Frank Baxter and Alliance supporters Susan Smidt and Nicole Mutchnik.

The Governor and his team saw how Alliance teachers are leveraging technology to increase their effectiveness, and the positive impact on students who receive more individualized attention as a result of BLAST.

We feel honored to have had this opportunity to share our experience with Governor Brown and very proud to be recognized for our success as leaders and innovators in education. We look forward to continuing our work with state leaders to improve education for all students across California.

Sincerely,

Judy Burton

Hello Neighbor!

Land Use Committee Meets Tomorrow Night

The Land Use and Planning Committee of the Eagle Rock Neighborhood Council will meet tomorrow,

Thursday, May 15, at 7:00 PM at Eagle Rock City Hall, 2035 Colorado Boulevard, 90041 (downstairs meeting room). The agenda for the meeting can be found at this link.

<https://docs.google.com/document/d/1P4H-E8xApLNepKO2MQRS8sbVzAvOgBPsn1ZHZ-vmM0A/edit?pli=1>

There's only one action item on the agenda this month, along with a preliminary discussion about amending the Colorado Boulevard Specific Plan; this is something Eagle Rockers have been talking about for years, and which the ERNC is finally going to do something about -- with your help.

IT'S POTHOLE TIME! (again)

Once again, the City of LA is rolling out its "Neighborhood Blitz" initiative. On Monday, May 19, a city truck and crew will be in Eagle Rock to fill our worst potholes -- and sidewalk holes -- with fresh asphalt.

Yes, you can get the same service by calling 311. But that can take forever, and we shouldn't look a gift horse in the mouth, right?

So you have 24 hours to sent the ERNC your vote for the 3 worst potholes -- or sidewalk craters -- in Eagle Rock. Don't list the ones on your street, or in front of your house, unless they're truly worthy; since the crew realistically will only hit 3 locations in their day of work, we're only looking for the monsters that bother the most people, every day.

Click this link for our handy pothole reporting form.

<https://docs.google.com/a/eaglerockcouncil.org/forms/d/1aQ1mO1RE0ET6ZgKrKHt2vGmLURFwIbdLE-cGboJBHhg/viewform>

Please enter your potholes by 12 noon, tomorrow, May 15!

What should I care about - and maybe join - the ERNC's Land Use and Planning Committee?

When someone applies to build or sell something in Eagle Rock that requires a public hearing, the ERNC makes sure that you get 3 chances to weigh in on it: at the Land Use Committee of the ERNC; at the full board meeting of the ERNC; and before the Department of City Planning downtown. The latter is the hearing that really matters, since only the Planning decision is legally binding; but you can influence that decision by speaking up, and showing up, at the hearings here in Eagle Rock. The City always asks about "community input" at that final hearing -- and if you'd rather the City not take a developer's word for it, then you should take the opportunity to weigh in.

We're always looking for new members for the LUPC, who have the energy to do good work on behalf of their fellow Eagle Rockers. If you'd like to communicate with the Land Use Committee or the ERNC, you can email us at: info@eaglerockcouncil.org.

The Eagle Rock Neighborhood Council (ERNC) is an official organization of the City of Los Angeles, staffed by 19 elected, unpaid volunteers. Our Board is composed of Eagle Rock stakeholders from all walks of life, who share a desire to make our home town a safer, greener, and more prosperous place to live.

Our job is neighborhood empowerment: We act as your advocates and liaisons to the City Council, the Mayor, and all City of L.A. departments that touch the lives of Eagle Rockers. Join us at one of our meetings, or talk to us at a community event, and find out how we can make Eagle Rock even better, together.

Charles Lummis' name engraved into the seat of his wooden toilet. | Brenda Rees
By Brenda Rees

Arts & Crafts Commode |Brenda Rees

A chair made from cow horns, a child-size fainting coach and the handmade commode of early L.A. civic leader Charles Fletcher Lummis. These are just some of the rarely seen "Out of the Vault" items that will be on display at the six museums participating in the Museums of the Arroyo (MOTA) Day on Sunday, May 18.

Celebrating its 25th year, the annual open house includes museums located near the famed Arroyo Seco from Pasadena to Highland Park: the Southwest Museum, the Gamble House, Heritage Square, Los Angeles Police Museum, Lummis Home and the Pasadena Museum of History.

Of all the "Out of the Vault" items on display, perhaps the one that elicits the most stifled chuckles would be the hand carved wooden commode at the Lummis Home in Highland Park. Looking like a tree stump, this artifact is a reminder of the power of indoor plumbing and the ability for artists to take anything – ANYTHING – and turn it into art.

"Lummis did have an outhouse on the property," says Ariel van Zandweghe of the Historical Society of Southern California, which is located in the famed arroyo-stoned Lummis Home, built in the late 1890s. "But he also had an indoor room near his bedroom that we think was a bathroom of sorts," van Zandweghe said. The heavy commode was probably housed in that tiny space.

One can imagine that with all of Lummis' grand parties, visiting dignitaries and gatherings of important people, this commode may have been a, ahem, "well-used" item.

Later when Lummis expanded his house, he did include another bathroom, one featuring the modern conveniences of indoor plumbing.

Lummis' handiwork will also be showcased in the "Out of the Vault" exhibit at the nearby Southwest Museum in Mt. Washington, where guests will be able to listen to recordings and view archival documents related to Lummis's famed wax cylinder collection.

After purchasing an Edison recorder and cylinders early 1904, Lummis made more than 900 recordings of Spanish songs with diverse origins from Mexican, Latin American and European music. In addition, hundreds of Native American songs from 23 different tribes are part of the collection. At MOTA Day, Spanish songs from Old California will be heard.

Along with free admission, entertainment and family fun at each of the six museums, MOTA Day also provides free shuttles between all six museums; shuttles will stop at all museums except for the Pasadena Museum of History. Click here for details and parking information. MOTA Day is noon – 5 p.m. with last museum entrance at 4 p.m.

Wed May 14, 2014 10:07 pm (PDT) . Posted by: asncaalert

Hi there,

As many of you know, I've been honored to be the Artist in Residence at LFCSA charter school with the Living Museum project! If you're available, please stop by after school on Thursday this week and join me for an open studio. I'd love to share the progress on the temporary public art projects we have started with the 5th and 6th graders - set to debut on Lummis Day 2014 (Sunday, June 1st- save the date). So many of you have been so kind to lead walking tours, open your homes and offer support in a myriad of ways! Please also take a look at the wonderful KCET Youth Departures segment on the project - many of you are featured!
